Well, another one comes to a close. And for those of you who say history never repeats itself, that's just plain not true. This Modesto Regional was every bit as challenging as the first! It was almost like Déjà Vu - we started with a block that was 120% booked, no one could get in, then a bunch of people canceled or departed early, and all of a sudden we were in trouble again.

Which is why my FIRST and most important thank you is to those of you that honor your reservations! I don't know how we're going to teach those others how to do it, I've been trying for years and everything I've said and written seems to have fallen on deaf ears.

My second, and just as important thank you is to those of you staying here without the bridge rate, that made yourselves known to me. We needed every one of you to come forth! You, and the loyal contingent of our board members that showed up paying a pretty penny per night, are the reason we saved ourselves from the big hotel penalties that happen when you don't meet your room commitments. Thank ALL OF YOU from the bottom of my heart.

This is a very nice venue for a tournament, but I'm sure that there are more of you than myself with a few choice words they'd like to say to the hotel. Send them to me, because they need to be passed on.

So thank you all again, that showed up, and I sincerely hope you had a good time!!

I have some wonderful staff to thank. Firstly DIC Ken Horwedel and his wonderful staff. They ran the games professionally and skillfully. I'm very pleased with their performance. Take a moment- thank a director. Always a good policy.

My crew had a new member, Sharon Neff in Hospitality. She and her cohort Marilyn Minden gave you a pleasant place to relax complete with wine and cheese (or coffee and a Danish).

Our super-caddies were Amanda and her brother Frederico, who split the week because thankfully they're both in school! Ray pitched in for Sunday Swiss.

Thanks to Dan Williams for duplicating the boards, and to Calvin for bringing all the STUFF.

Last but not least, thanks Doug and Kevin. You're the best. I really appreciate you even more this week for helping me get through a tough event. You guys not only do an amazing job, you do it with heart.

So everybody, next party in Sacramento! Be there or miss out!! (Read that as "I'll miss you if you don't come")

Drive home safe,
Pam
